

What is a Two-Day Training at LCU?

Lifestyle Christianity University is a ministry equipping school consisting of a student body who have undergone an interview process, paid tuition, and been accepted to attend LCU. We at Lifestyle Christianity want to give those who are not students the opportunity to visit, hear our speakers and experience an amazing encounter with Jesus at LCU without having to be full-time students. To do this, we have developed a program where the public can visit and experience two days of training and equipping during the school year as a two-day, non-enrolled student. We can't wait to have you join us!

Two-Day Training Attendance

Training days at LCU are held during the school week (Monday - Thursday) numerous designated times throughout the school year (August - May). Please join us for as many Two-Day Training events as possible! For a list of events, you can visit lifestylechristianity.com/events

Two-Day Training Refund Policy

Two-Day Training events at LCU are funded by donation (suggested amount is a $10 minimum to help cover the cost of an included boxed lunch and anything above this helps us cover additional expenses. We appreciate your generosity toward the labors of our teachers and staff!), therefore, we do not provide refunds.

Two-Day Training Attendee Guidelines

- Attendees can attend class & participate in worship and will be required to sit in the section reserved for attendees unless they are an immediate family member of a current LCU student and are attending as the student's guest.
- Attendees are allowed to attend classes in the main auditorium only, including during elective classes.
- Attendees cannot join or attend LCU Lifegroups, which happen on Thursdays from 11:30 - 1:00 pm, after the main session, as they are a relational time for full-time students and not open to the public.
- Attendees must be 18 years or older to attend. If you are a prospective student looking to visit LCU at the age of 17, then you must be accompanied by a parent.
- Parents who wish to visit, please be aware that children 17 years old and under, are not allowed. (We allow mothers to bring nursing infants up to 9 month old)
- The opportunity to receive ministry and prayer may arise during the day, however, they are not guaranteed.
- Our speakers and pastors normally have a full schedule during the school day and are unable to have personal meetings with attendees. For questions or prayer requests, you can contact us through our website at www.lifestylechristianity.com
- Two-Day Trainings are designed for the participant to come and encounter Jesus, receive from our speakers, and enjoy the LCU. We ask that attendees refrain from ministering to LCU students or staff while on campus. This means the laying on of hands, giving prophetic words, and other types of ministry. Two-Day Trainings are days designed specifically for the attendee to come and receive what God has for them within our school environment and culture. It is our desire that attendees come to LCU with an expectation of encountering Jesus, experiencing our LCU culture and enjoying a day of receiving from God.

Lifestyle Christianity reserves the right to ask an attendee to refrain from certain actions or behaviors. Lifestyle Christianity reserves the right to have an attendee removed from campus at any time at the security team and staff's discretion. Thank you for your understanding and thank you for attending our Two-Day Training! We hope you have an amazing time with Jesus and our LCU family!
